

BRAVO!

The Accademia Internazionale “Greci-Marino,” Accademia del Verbano, have the honor of informing you that the Administrative Board of the Academy after having reviewed the documents received at the same time as the dossier held by the Academy has decided to name Madame Marie-Voahangy Ramariavelo (Lower School Teacher), Associate Academic – Section: Art.

This Academy participates in all research and studies in all disciplines, encourages the cultural and artistic avant-garde through the world and assists the greatest diffusion of studies dealing with culture. To be part of the Academy, you must be noticed and pass in front of a commission that examines the quality of work of the Artist on the dossier. The Greci-Marino Academy has relations and exchanges with numerous Cultural Centers through the world. Citing UNESCO, Columbia Academy of St-Louis US, Academy of letters and Arts in Beyrouth, the Royal academy of Arts of London, the International Center of Contemporary Arts in Paris and many others.

On September 28, the 8th grade drama and choir students travelled to the High School for the Performing and Visual Arts to attend a performance of Seussical: The Musical.

This show incorporates many of the various Dr. Seuss characters like “The Cat in the Hat” and “Gertrude McFuzz” around the story of “Horton Hears a Who.” The Awty 8th grade drama and choir students will be presenting Seussical, Jr., a slightly condensed version of the show, in the Black Box May 13, 14 and 15. Mark your calendars now to come see Awty’s young stars as they sing, dance and entertain.

